Dear Dr. Lederberg:

We wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of September 1, 1957.

We sincerely regret that you are unable to accept our invitation to prepare the review on Biochemistry of Genetic Factors for Volume 28 (1959) of the Annual Review of Biochemistry. We fully appreciate, however, the circumstances which prevent your undertaking this task at this time. Perhaps in the future you will feel free to write a chapter for the Review.

We are grateful for the suggestions in your letter. The names will be added to our file for future consideration by the Editorial Committee.

Yours very sincerely,

J. Murray Luck
